28 Haydon Street, Rosebery

Jam packed with features to impress!!!

Large corner property that is perfectly positioned across the road from the popular Haydon Park with play areas for the kids and only a short walk or bike ride over to the Rosebery Primary and Middle School – this solid brick home is expansive and offers a wealth of space both inside and out to enjoy.

The home is well positioned on the corner allotment to make the most of the passing breezes that whip around it. At the front of the home is parking for 2 with a formal front entry that opens into a foyer where you can greet your guests. Inside is a sprawling open plan living room with a dining room placed adjacent to the kitchen and an additional family room at the rear! Wow that is a massive internal footprint ideal for the family dynamics.

A front facing master bedroom is light filled and offers streetscape views along with a generous ensuite bathroom and a walk in robes as well. In addition there are three more bedrooms that each include tiled flooring and air-conditioning.

The kitchen is gorgeous with wrap around counters and an impressive island bench to work off plus plenty of under bench storage and a pantry as well. From the kitchen you can view most of the living areas making it ideal
