Right on the beach front!

Located on the beach front, this freshly painted generously sized unit is centrally located between the northern suburbs and the city – shorten the commute and start living! Offering a central location and a contemporary design to please, this property boasts park and beach views from the living room and balcony and is the ideal place to watch the spectacular Darwin sunsets or the storm clouds roll in. No matter the weather, there will always be a nightly spectacular on the horizon to enjoy.

The corner unit is in a small secure building with off street parking for one. Located directly across from a park with rolling green lawns and several playgrounds and only meters from the beach, this home would even suit a small family. Right next door is the iconic Beachfront Bar and Bistro that offers great live entertainment, events and great food and drinks – you'll never have to catch a taxi again!

The home itself offers two large bedrooms with brand new carpet and recently installed aircons, both with BIR and the master with an ensuite. The ensuite bathroom comes with a single vanity with storage and a deluxe spa bath to soak away the troubles of a hard day's work. The main bathroom
