

Relaxed and inviting living with a tropical touch

Perfectly suited to the family on the go, the single, the couple or the savvy investor – this tranquil 2 bedroom apartment is positioned within a small complex and allows you access to the beachside lifestyle in less then 5 minutes. It's all about location and lifestyle with this easy maintenance, high impact property.

At the front of this pet freindly home is a screened in front porch that is sheltered with tropical gardens and a paved area where you can secure your push bike or greet guests. Inside is a sweeping open plan living and dining room with the kitchen positioned at the rear. These internal living areas are light and breezy and include tiled flooring underfoot.

The kitchen is spacious and well designed for everyday cooking with wrap around counters that include plenty of under bench storage along with overhead shelving / displays and access through to the courtyard for easy outdoor dining options.

Each of the two bedrooms are spacious in design and include both a built in robe and A/C as well. The bathroom resides centrally between them and has a modern presentation with plenty of built in storage in the vanity.
