

64 O'ferrals Road, Bayview

Luxury – Redefined

Boasting clean lines with a contemporary and ultra modern front façade, this two storey property is a dynamic family home or wonderful executive couples retreat. The sleek lines and architectural finishes run throughout the home creating a lasting impression that serves both functionally and aesthetically.

On the ground level of this truly breath taking home is a front facing study or optional 5th bedroom with robes and access to a two way bathroom. The home then opens up to reveal the magnificent views over the marina that are showcased in the glass sliding doors and in most of the windows throughout the property. Completely tiled underfoot with air-conditioning throughout, this breezy home is well equipped for the Tropical climate.

The kitchen is modern and well designed with a functional layout that is also dynamic in appearance with a low set ceiling and feature lighting playing off the stone counters, breakfast bar and wrap around cabinetry. From the kitchen you can look out over the free flowing living and dining areas towards the amble outdoor entertaining spaces or enjoy the sunset views over the marina while you prepare a meal.
