22 Bowditch Street, Muirhead

Breathtakingly beautiful – Unassuming elegance

Designed with flow and function in mind, this cleverly crafted executive abode has that timeless touch, that effortless elegance that just quietly says “I am luxury”. From the front entry with the main door opening wide to showcase a feature pendant light strung low from the two storey void above, the home has been crafted to cater to the everyday needs yet elevate for impressive entertaining.

A front facing informal living room is framed with windows that showcase the cool blue depths of the adjacent pool. Glass framed stairs lead through to the master bedroom suite above which includes an incredible walk in robe and ensuite bathroom with free standing bath and waterfall walk in shower.

From the living spaces the home flows through to the central kitchen, dining room and outdoor entertaining areas that work together to create an entertaining hub of the home. The kitchen has stone topped breakfast bar with pendant lighting throwing patterns over the ceiling. Quality appliances, hidden fridge and mirrored splashbacks compliment the modern tones of this wonderful area.
